

Need to Report???

If you need to make a report of child abuse, threats to children or teens, or internet crimes against children or teens please contact your local law enforcement office.

After contacting your local law enforcement you can also contact cybertipline.org or call 1-800-843-5678.

Got Cyberbullies?

- Tell a trusted adult right away
- If your trusted adult can't help you, find another trusted adult until you find one who listens and helps you
- Save the evidence
- Create new accounts

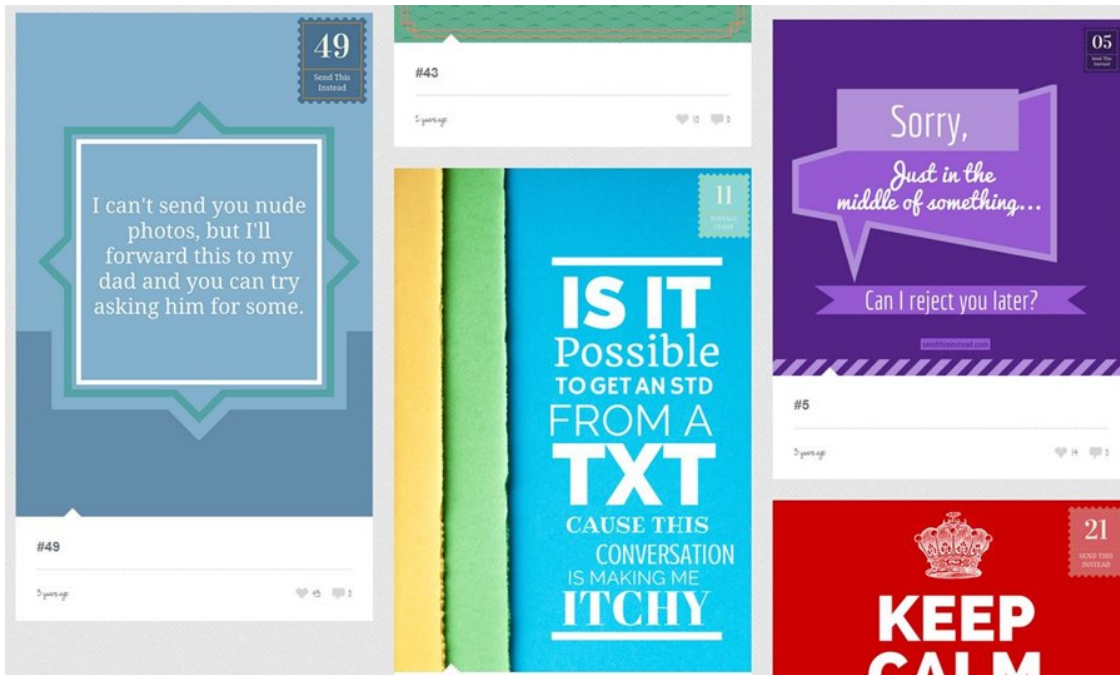

The following two apps can be used to help keep you safe and keep your digital footprint looking good.

Send this Instead App

Send This Instead App's webpage states "We asked all the funny people we knew, "What would you say if someone asked you to send images you didn't want to?" We took their answers and made posters and developed this app. The posters are witty, sarcastic and meant to help get the point across – using humor as a strategy."
