AP[®] WORLD HISTORY

Student Name (print): _____

Date: _____

The AP World History course is structured to use historical skills, chronological reasoning, comparison, contextualization, argumentation, interpretation, and synthesis, to study the six different chronological periods, from approximately 1200 C.E. to the present. Students will follow historical change and continuity within the six-time periods, paying attention to unifying course themes and associated learning objectives. The course finishes with the national AP World History examination in May, in which students may receive college credit at their preferred university if they score a three or better out of five.

Prerequisites:

- Return this form with your unofficial transcript.
- Give AP Prerequisite Instructor Referral form to a current liberal arts teacher, English or Social Studies. (Teacher recommendations will be submitted by the teacher.)

STM COURSE WITHDRAWAL POLICY: Read carefully and initial below

Students enrolled in yearlong courses must complete the full year in order to receive credit. If a student withdraws from the class at any time before the end of a semester, he/she will receive a "WF" (Withdrawal-F). This will be placed on the transcript and figured into GPA. If a student drops a yearlong course at semester time, he/she will not receive credit or the grade received for the semester completed. The full year must be completed to receive credit and to have the grade count towards the student's GPA. If the student drops the class at the end of the first semester, there will be a "W" (Withdrawn from class) placed on the transcript for both semesters. Administration discretion may be used in extreme circumstances.
